

Home Security Visit Volunteer

Department/Location: Forcewide

Responsible to: Lead Volunteer

Role Purpose: The main purpose of this volunteer role is to support the Force Home Support Visit programme. You will be required to visit members of the public who have requested a Home Security Visit at their home address.

Some of the tasks we would like your help with:

- Schedule and liaise with the requestor a convenient date and time for the visit.
- Visiting and providing home security advice to the requestor who may or may not have been victim of domestic burglary.
- Providing reassurance to victims of crime.
- Completing home security reports highlighting recommendations made during the visit.
- Maintaining records with details of visits.

What skills you need:

- Good communication skills oral and written
- Good organisational skills
- Good IT skills
- Ability to work as part of a team

What training and support you will receive:

You will take part in an induction to help you understand your role and how the force works, along with training on how to use specialist databases and IT systems.

You will also undertake a comprehensive training programme to equip you for the role.

We have Lead Volunteers on each of our 8 Neighbourhood Policing Areas (NPA's). Part of their role is to support volunteers, so they will be able to assist you with any problems or questions you may have throughout your time as a Police Support Volunteer with Leicestershire Police.

How much time?

This is a flexible role and hours (in amount and when) are subject to local agreement.
